June 27 – Collection Counting Team 1 – (Brady, Carmichael, LoCascio, Wilber)

Both the first reading and the Gospel today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most valuable example of using one's time and talent to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just "a cup of cold water" to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded.

Stewardship Message: Time, Talent & Treasure

“No one shall appear before the Lord empty-handed, but each of you with as much as he can give, in proportion to the blessings which the Lord, God has bestowed on you.”

Deuteronomy 16:10, 16-17

Baptisms

On June 12th, the St. Jude parish community had the joy of welcoming into the family of Catholic Christians through the celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism.

Griffin Mitchell Leach

Please keep Griffin, and his Parents and his Godparents in your prayers.

Women's Tea

Mark your calendars now for the next meeting of the women's afternoon tea. It is scheduled for Wednesday July 13th from 1 to 3 PM at the parish center. A sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board.

Weekend Liturgy Ministry

LECTOR

A Lector proclaims the Scripture readings at Mass with reverence and understanding. They should have a love for God's Word and the desire to study it more deeply. Lectors are adults or teenagers who have been confirmed. They should be dependable and have a clear speaking voice. Training and guidance are provided. Lectors are scheduled on a rotating basis with most Lectors scheduled at least once or twice in a two month period.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTER

The Eucharistic Minister helps the priest with the distribution of the Eucharist. They should be an adult or a teenager who has been confirmed; and who has a love and reverence for the Eucharist. Training sessions are provided. Eucharistic Ministers are scheduled on a rotating basis with most ministers scheduled three to four times in a two month period.
