Stewardship Message: Time, Talent & Treasure

Seeing Jesus transfigured made Peter want to do something to mark the event. But the Voice from the cloud said clearly that the first task of those who recognize Jesus as Lord is to listen to Jesus – and then act!

Church Dusters for the week of August 6th is the Suzann Segatto and Mary and John Fox.

☺!!!High School Youth!!!!☺

On Wednesday, August 15th at 6 p.m. we will gather together for a Mass with teens to celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (a Holy Day of Obligation). Following Mass there will be a cookout and then we will head to the drive-in for a movie. Bring along $5.00. There will be a need for adult chaperones and drivers for the drive-in. Permission slips can be found on the youth page of the parish website www.rockesterstjude.com/Youth/parents.asp. For more information call the parish office at 498-9524.

St. Jude's School Friends 2007

St. Patrick's Catholic Elementary School is in need of school supplies for the upcoming year. Please think about this list as you are shopping for your child's own supplies. If you can donate any of the items, drop them in the basket at the back of the church marked "School Friends". We will be collecting over the next three weekends, with delivery directly to the classrooms on August 20. Thanks in advance for your generosity!

A Night with Harry Potter this Tuesday!

If you're into the mystique of the Harry Potter story and would enjoy exploring the countless ways these tales correspond with our own Judeo/Christian heritage, ride a Thestral, Hippogryph or the Hogwarts express over to the parish center at 7:00 p.m. (No apparating allowed until you're 17!) Once sorted, you'll compete with the other houses to divide the spoils inside the coveted cauldron of tasty candy treats straight from Honeydukes sweet shop in Hogsmeade! Even if you know nothing about HP but would enjoy some cool fellowship designed to cull the great faith lessons from J.K. Rowling's series, join us for a frothy butter(root)beer float, try some Bertie Bott's flavored beans but watch out for the one that tastes like sardines! Adults, teens and those not ready for first-year are all welcome. For more information, send an owl to Professor DumbleDan at his parish chambers.

Confirmandi Notice

If you would like to be confirmed this October, please obtain all forms on-line at www.rockesterstjude.com under the Christian Formation tab followed by the Sacraments of Initiation tab. I've would very much like to receive your "Letter of Intent" by Wednesday, August 15th so I can make adequate preparations on my end. If you cannot obtain the forms on-line, there is a brick-colored accordion folder in the kiosk in the foyer of church. Consider sending me your Community Service letter while you've got more time too. PARENTS meet on Tuesday, August 28th at 7:00 p.m. SEE the Christian Formation bulletin board for some quick Q&A if you have questions.

Protecting God's Children (PGC) Training

For those who are new Catechists, Aides, Children's Liturgy of the Word volunteers or anyone else working with children, there are several PGC trainings in the area coming up. Dan Frachey & Frances Tomashavich are offering this training on Thursday, August 23rd from 6:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m. at the St. Jude parish center. To register, call Dan at the parish center. Together, we form a caring and protective community for our children.

Catechists & Aides Needed

As a very young parish, we are blessed with well over 300 students seeking to take part in our Parish School of Religion. With 25 separate classrooms, we require a lot of volunteers to create a suitable learning environment. There are a few slots remaining for Catechists, Aides and substitute helpers. For those willing to commit to serving in this ministry, we honor your stewardship by waiving your PSR registration fees. If you value your faith and would be willing to help fan the flames in other's minds and hearts, perhaps God is calling you now to join our excellent learning community. We strive to place two adults in each class so you wouldn't be on your own if you want to give this a try. To learn more about the opportunities available, contact Dan Frachey at the parish center.

PSR Class Update

The following classes are now full or almost full:

Sunday 4th grade (FULL)

Sunday 1st grade (1 spot remaining)

Other grades are nearing the maximum number allowed so please send in your registration forms to assure your family's choice.

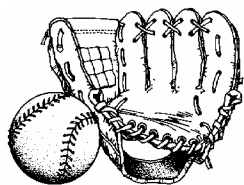

HARVEST

FOR THE NEEDY!

St. Jude's Plant-A-Row

Parishioners can continue to drop off their extra produce after the Masses in the baskets located in the church furnace/storage room on the left at the back of the church. We have made arrangements to donate the produce to St. Martin de Porres' food pantry every Tuesday morning this summer.

Tournament

The men's team plays Sunday, August 5th at 1:45pm and the co-ed team plays at 3:00am at the Rochester Park. Come cheer the teams on during the end of the year tournament. There are even some openings on the teams.

STEWARDSHIP

The Community of St. Jude made the decision many years ago that we would no longer "pass the basket" during Mass. Instead – we pledged to practice

Sacrificial Giving

We place our offering in the basket located on the table behind the last row of chairs.

Electronic Funds Transfers

Three years ago we began offering parishioners the opportunity to make contributions to the Church using electronic fund transfers instead of using weekly envelopes. This opportunity still exists today. If you are interested, forms are located on the book rack at the entrance to church or you can stop by the parish office to pick up a form. You will need to complete the pertinent information of the form; choose the donation frequency (monthly or semi-monthly); the amount of the contribution and what funds the contribution should be credited to. After completion, attach a voided check or a savings deposit slip. It can then be placed in the collection basket or mailed to the office. If you have any questions about electronic contributions, please contact Sue Bozarth in the office.

Come and join Ss. Mary & Joseph and St. Raymond Parishes on the Our Lady of Guadalupe Pilgrimage in Mexico City, Mexico - November 9 - 15, 2007. The registration deadline has been extended to August 31, 2007 without a late penalty. For the itinerary and registration forms go to:

www.catholicheritage-tours.com/srp/ or 800/2903876 or call local contact: Donna 217-726-8368.

Save the Date September 9th

Rochester Village Park
Mass at 11:00 am
Picnic at Noon

Watch the bulletin for further details.

Help for Troubled Marriages

Remember how your marriage used to be a warm and welcoming place? Want that again? You can learn how to heal your troubled marriage at the next St. Louis Retrouvaille Weekend Sept. 21-23, 2007. For confidential information, please call Beth and Dave at 314-837-8576 or call toll free 1-800-470-2230. (Don't let financial difficulty stand in your way. Retrouvaille can work with you.) A full description of our program is found at www.retouville.org.

INTERESTED IN JOINING PARISH: _____

QUESTION: _____

In September all parishioners will be given the opportunity to sign-up for various ministries where you will be able to share your time and talent with the parish. So for the next several weeks we will highlight a few of the ministries.

Liturgical Ministries

Liturgy Commission Member

Join others in visioning, planning and implementing this community's worship. This ministry's goal is to promote full, conscious, and active participation in all our liturgies by all the assembly. We do this through careful liturgy planning, through working to develop the various ministries and by working to educate our community about liturgy and the liturgical life of the parish. Ongoing education is provided. We meet the 4th Monday of the month. The only skills needed are a love of Catholic liturgy and the willingness to learn.

Lector

A Lector proclaims the Scripture readings at Mass with reverence and understanding. They should have a love for God's Word and the desire to study it more deeply. Lectors are adults or high school youth. They should be dependable and have a clear speaking voice. Training and guidance is provided. Lectors are scheduled on a rotating basis. Preparation to serve as lector requires reviewing all readings for the assigned mass and carefully practicing the assigned readings.

Eucharistic Ministers

The Eucharistic Minister helps the celebrant with the distribution of the Eucharist. They should be an adult or teenager who has been confirmed; and, who has a love and reverence for the Eucharist. Attendance at a one hour mandatory training session is required. Eucharistic Ministers are scheduled on a rotating basis.

Acolyte (Server)

Acolytes assist the presider during Mass by holding the Sacramentary, helping at the presentation of the gifts, carrying the cross and "other duties as assigned" by the presider. To be an acolyte, you must have received First Communion. You must have the ability to be attentive and reverent during Mass. You must be dependable. Attendance at two, one hour mandatory training sessions is required. Acolytes must be willing to serve on a rotating basis.

Mass Coordinator

Mass Coordinators are asked to arrive 20 minutes before Mass starts to insure that everything is in place for the celebration of the Mass. They assist the priest in making sure all the Acolytes, Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers have arrived and are checked in. Mass Coordinators are asked to stay 10 minutes after Mass to insure that everything is put away properly and that everything is in place for the next Mass.

Sacristan

Sacristans are responsible for laundering, ironing, polishing, organizing and cleaning any items that are used for the Mass or kept in the Sacristy. This is a great ministry for someone who wants a flexible schedule – you can work when it is convenient for you. The only skill you need is a desire to be of service.

Hospitality/Greeters

Families and/or individuals who wish to help this community make sure our visitors and newcomers are welcomed with a warm smile and a greeting. These ministers are asked to arrive 15 minutes before mass to let visitors know of our joy that they are with us. They hand out worship aides and bulletins, and they help set a tone of warmth and welcome at all liturgical functions. These ministers also are asked to bring the gifts to the altar at the Presentation of the Gifts. Hospitality/Greeters are asked to stay 10 minutes after mass to ensure that music books have been put away and the worship space is picked up.

Liturgical Environment

This group coordinates church décor for liturgical seasons, feasts and sacramental celebrations. The skills needed are a love for liturgy, an eye for beauty, creativity with flowers, plants and/or fabric and a willingness to learn about the norms for church environment. Training is not required and the time commitment is as needed.

Ministry of Bread

Our bakers prepare a simple flour-and-water bread for Sunday Eucharist. The only qualifications needed are a love of the Eucharist and the ability to follow simple instructions. We bake in the Parish Center on the Second Monday of each month. Teams of bakers are scheduled on a rotating basis, usually taking one and half hours, 3 to 4 times a year. A one hour training session is scheduled

Children's Liturgy of the Word Leader and Assistants

These individuals will conduct the Liturgy of the Word for Children. This responsibility includes preparing and delivering reflections. Workbooks will be provided that greatly assists in this endeavor. Attendance is required at one training session.

Eucharistic Adoration

Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is nothing less than a close, private conversation with a living person who is the risen Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. It is about as close as we can come in this life to talking with God face to face. You are very important to the Lord. You are invited to spend a special hour with Him. The Church is open for Eucharistic Adoration from 5:00 pm until 7:00 pm on Friday evenings.
