Stewardship Message: Time, Talent & Treasure

The three kings in today's Gospel traveled a great distance at considerable cost to offer their richest gifts to the Infant Jesus. How far will I go and what will I offer to do homage to this newborn King and Savior?

If you would like to take part in either Wednesday evening or Sunday morning classes, please sign up on the Christian Formation board or contact Dan Frachey. Keep your mind sharp, your faith burning and your knowledge expanding during 2007.

St. Jude parish community has had the joy of welcoming into the family of Catholic Christians through the celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism.

Please keep Juliana and her family in your prayers.

Baptism of the Lord

On Monday January 8th, Evening Prayer will be held at 5:45pm. All parishioners are invited to attend but a special invitation goes to those parishioners who have either been baptized or have had a child baptized within the last year. What better way to celebrate the Baptism of the Lord.

Do you have a son, daughter or spouse serving in the military? We would like to have a list of all those who are serving our country so unselfishly. Please provide their name to the parish office.

Congratulations and thanks to all who participated or assisted at the children's Christmas musical. It was a great success! God has truly blessed St. Jude's with very talented and dedicated children.

The children's choir will resume rehearsing next Wednesday, January 10th, from 5:30-6:30pm in the church. The choir will sing at 10:30am mass on Sunday, January 28th.

Children in grades 2nd through 9th are invited to be a part of the choir. No audition is required. For more information, please contact director Mike Spainhour.

The Church of St. Jude Knights of Columbus council is sponsoring a youth "Spelling Bee" on Sunday, February 4th, at 12:00pm in the parish hall.

Children in grades 5th-8th are eligible to participate. The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners will each receive a trophy and advance to the regional spelling bee. All who compete will receive a certificate of participation. Lunch will be provided free of charge to all who attend. To register, please sign-up at your children's Christian Formation classrooms or on the activities bulletin board at the church. The registration deadline is Sunday, January 21st. A study guide will be sent to all registrants. For more information, please contact Mike Spainhour at the parish office.

Riverton Knights of Columbus Council 3914 is having a Pancake and Sausage Breakfast on Sunday, January 14th from 9:00am to noon.

Grief for the Suicide Survivor

The Office for Family and Youth Ministry will host an evening for those who are survivors of suicide and those who have experienced mental illness in their family. Tom & Fran Smith from Belleville will speak about their struggles with their daughter, Karla's mental illness and how they cope with their suicide survivors' grief. The presentation is free and open to the public. It will be held at the Catholic Pastoral Center, 1615 W. Washington in Springfield on February 7, 2007 at 7:00 PM. For more information, call the Office for Family & Youth Ministry at (217) 698-8500.

A New Class of Deacon Aspirants

An informational gathering for those who might be interested in the Permanent Diaconate class that will begin in the fall of 2007 is being planned for Sunday, January 28, 2007, 2:00-4:00 p.m. at Christ the King Parish Center in Springfield, Illinois. Interested men and their wives are invited to attend. The deacon formation team, along with some of our deacon candidates, will be present for questions and answers. In order that we might prepare, please have interested parties RSVP to Joan Reed in the Office for the Diaconate, e-mail jreed@dio.org or telephone (217) 698-8500 ext. 153 at the Catholic Pastoral Center. Admission requirements may be found on the diocesan website www.dio.org under the Office for the Diaconate.
